Certification

A seller that has reason to believe that the certificate is not accurate or complete will not be relieved of the burden of proving entitlement to the exemption. A seller that accepts a certificate in good faith will be relieved of the burden of proof and the purchaser may be required to establish the accuracy of the claimed exemption. If the purchaser cannot establish the accuracy and completeness of the information provided in the certificate, the purchaser is liable for an amount equal to the transaction privilege tax, penalty and interest which the seller would have been required to pay if the seller had not accepted the certificate. Misuse of this Certificate will subject the purchaser to payment of the ARS § 42-5009 amount equal to any tax, penalty or interest. Willful misuse of this Certificate will subject the purchaser to criminal penalties of a felony pursuant to ARS § 42-1127.B.2.

I, (print full name) _____, hereby certify that these purchases are exempt from Arizona transaction privilege tax and that the information on this Certificate is true, accurate and complete. Further, if purchasing as an agent or officer, I certify that I am authorized to execute this Certificate on behalf of the purchaser named above.
